Get up with the lark for a photography masterclass on Ullswater

Budding landscape and nature photographers are being invited to join Ullswater 'Steamers' this spring to experience what has to be the ultimate photographers dream...

'Steamers' have teamed up with top multi-award winning photographer Mark Littlejohn, to offer a special dawn cruise on Ullswater on Thursday 14 April.

Ullswater, one of the most spectacular landscapes in the Lake District, if not the whole of Britain, provides the perfect backdrop for all would be Ansel Adams's, with its impressive scenery and wide range of flora and fauna.

But that's not all, as you will be also be accompanied by top photographer Mark Littlejohn – who won the 'Take A View Landscape Photographer of the Year 2014' so you won't go short on expert hints and tips either...

The three hour dawn cruise departs Glenridding at 5.30am, returning at 9.30am. During the morning Mark will help those on-board make the most of their equipment and provide hints and tips on capturing the best images possible.

Tickets are priced at £45 per person, book in advance, and includes the cruise and a complimentary tea/coffee & croissant on board, places are limited, please wear suitable clothing.
